

The background is a grayscale photograph of a bar or pub interior. Several people are seated at a long bar, looking towards the right. In the background, a large screen displays lines of code, suggesting a technical or cybersecurity theme. The lighting is dim, with some spotlights visible on the ceiling.

Set Questions

1. What's the day to day of your job?
2. What was your entry route to your role? (courses/certs/internships/interviews)
3. Do you have a mentor or people you can reach out to for support/guidance?
4. What would be your advice to somebody starting out in cyber?

Q5 & 6 if time allows

1. Where do you see your role taking you?
2. How/where do you like learning about cyber?

A black and white photograph of a crowded bar or lounge. In the foreground, several people are seated at tables, viewed from behind. The background shows a bar area with a large screen displaying a complex interface, possibly a game or a data visualization. The atmosphere is dimly lit with warm lighting from the bar and screens.

Thank You!
